

Teaching Faculty, 2025-2026

The Catholic High School of Baltimore, rooted in Franciscan values, invites passionate educators to express their interest in joining our dynamic and dedicated faculty for the 2025-2026 school year. We seek individuals who are enthusiastic about fostering academic excellence, nurturing spiritual growth, and promoting community engagement within a faith-filled educational environment.

We are particularly interested in candidates with a genuine passion for teaching in the following subject areas:

English
Social Studies
Theology
Math
Science
World Languages

Qualified Candidates Should Possess:

- A Bachelor's degree or higher in the subject area or a closely related field.
- Maryland State Certification is preferred but not required.
- Proficiency in using technology, particularly Google Drive and Google Classroom.
- A commitment to fostering a supportive, inclusive, and engaging classroom environment.
- A willingness to embrace and commit to the mission and philosophy of The Catholic High School of Baltimore.

The Catholic High School of Baltimore provides a high-quality, college preparatory education rooted in the Franciscan tradition for young women. Catholic High challenges its students to achieve academic excellence, demonstrate responsible leadership, and engage in Christian community service. The school has been sponsored by the Sisters of St. Francis of Philadelphia since 1939.

If you are interested in teaching opportunities at The Catholic High School of Baltimore, should positions become available, please email your letter of interest, resume, salary requirements, and three references to Dr. Phil Piercy, Principal, at ppiercy@thecatholichighschool.org.
