OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) prohibits the release of any student's records without her express permission, or that of the student and her parent(s) if she is under the age of eighteen.

In accordance with the requirements of this law, by signing the release below, you are granting permission to The Catholic High School of Baltimore to release your records to the colleges to which you will be applying.

Seniors Applying to College:

I request that my transcript be released to any and all colleges to which I will be submitting applications this year. By signing this form, I am acknowledging that my records may be transmitted to the colleges either in the form of paper documents or electronically, and that, once submitted, The Catholic High School of Baltimore can not absolutely guarantee their confidentiality/security. I also agree to submit all applications and necessary documents to my guidance counselor at least two weeks prior to the deadline.
